CULTURE AND HISTORY

Imperial Cities — 08 days / 07 nights

Day 1: Casablanca Airport — 35 km:
Arrival at Mohammed V Airport in Casablanca and transfer to the centre of Casablanca, with a review of the trip itinerary along the way. Arrival at the hotel, check-in, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 2: Casablanca / Rabat / Meknes / Fez — 300 km:
Breakfast at the hotel. From 9am, meet your guide to begin the visit to the kingdom's economic capital: the Central Market, the Habous district, the Royal Palace (outside visit), Mohammed V square, the Anfa residential district, the Ain Diab Corniche and an outside visit of the Hassan II Mosque. Continue on to Rabat, with lunch at your own expense at a local restaurant. After lunch, visit Rabat, the administrative capital: the Royal Palace (Mechouar), the Mausoleum of Mohammed V and Hassan II and, finally, the Hassan Tower. Continue to Meknes, the Ismaili capital, known for its long 40-kilometre walls — visit the medina and the royal stables. Continue to Fez, arriving in the late afternoon, check-in at the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 3: Fez:
Breakfast at the hotel. A full day dedicated to visiting Morocco's spiritual capital: Fez. Visit the medieval medina and its madrasas: Bouanania, the Karaouiyine Mosque, the Nejjarine Fountain. Lunch at your own expense at a local restaurant and continued visit through the souks and the new town. Return to the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 4: Fez / Beni-Mellal / Marrakech — 500 km:
Breakfast at the hotel and drive to Marrakech, passing through Imouzzer el Kandar and the town of Ifrane. Stop in Beni Mellal, one of Morocco's most important agricultural centres, with lunch at your own expense at a local restaurant. Continue to Marrakech, check-in at the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 5: Marrakech:
Breakfast at the hotel. A full day to visit the country's Red City, the second-oldest imperial city after Fez. Known as the Pearl of the South, founded by the Almoravids at the end of the 11th century. The historical visit includes the Koutoubia Mosque, the Menara Gardens, the Saadian Tombs and the Bahia Palace. Lunch at your own expense at a local restaurant. In the afternoon, visit the souks and the craftsmen's quarters, discovering various trades, ending with a stop at the famous Jemaa el-Fna square. Optional: dinner at a typical restaurant with show and dancing. Return to the hotel and overnight stay.

Day 6: Marrakech / Essaouira / Marrakech — 350 km:
Breakfast at the hotel. Departure from Marrakech at 8am for a 3-hour drive to beautiful Essaouira, on the Atlantic coast. On arrival in the port city, once called Mogador, you will have time to enjoy its charm: the ochre-coloured ramparts, the beautiful Moulay El Hassan square, the souks and the alleyways of the old medina. Enjoy lunch at your own expense based on fresh fish at a local restaurant. During the walk, visit a women's cooperative producing argan oil, local markets and jewellery shops in the goldsmiths' quarter. Return to Marrakech in the late afternoon, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 7: Marrakech - Casablanca — 250 km:
Breakfast at the hotel. Free morning for personal exploration. Lunch at your own expense and drive to Casablanca; rest of the day free. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel in Casablanca.

Day 8: Casablanca / Departure:
Breakfast at the hotel and transfer to the airport for the departure flight. Assistance and end of services.

NOTE : The entire itinerary is on a half-board basis; dinner at a typical restaurant is therefore optional, at an additional cost. If the client chooses this service, it may be substituted for lunch instead of dinner at the hotel.

THE MAGIC DESERT
08 days / 07 nights

Day 1: Arrival in Marrakech:
Arrival at Marrakech Menara Airport and transfer to the hotel, with a review of the trip itinerary along the way. Check-in, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 2: Marrakech:
Breakfast at the hotel. A full day to visit the country's Red City, the second-oldest imperial city after Fez. Known as the Pearl of the South, founded by the Almoravids at the end of the 11th century. The historical visit includes the Koutoubia Mosque, the Menara Gardens, the Saadian Tombs and the Bahia Palace. Lunch at your own expense at a local restaurant. In the afternoon, visit the souks and craftsmen's quarters, discovering various trades, with a final stop at the famous Jemaa el-Fna square. Optional: dinner at a typical restaurant with show and dancing. Return to the hotel and overnight stay.

Day 3: Marrakech - Boumalne — 310 km:
Breakfast at the hotel and drive to Boumalne, via Taddert and the Tizi-n-Tichka pass (2,260 m), with a visit to the Telouet Kasbah and continuing on a paved road to the Ait Ben Haddou Kasbah. Lunch at your own expense at a local restaurant with a view of the kasbah. Continue to Boumalne along the Dades gorge, the main route between the desert and the ancient trading oases of Tafilalet. Arrival, check-in at the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 4: Boumalne - Tinghir - Erfoud - Merzouga — 255 km:
Breakfast at the hotel and visit to Dades canyon. Stop at Kelaa des Mgouna, the 'city of roses', known for its annual festival during the rose harvest in May. Continue along the Dades valley to Tinghir and the Todra valley. Admire the views over the ancient Berber mud-brick villages overlooking the valley. Arrival at the gorge and a walk beneath the 300 m red cliff face, where many climbers come to practise their favourite sport. Continue to Erfoud, where lunch will be served later. Visit the village of Rissani; switch to 4x4 vehicles towards the dunes of Merzouga, where you will spend the night in a tented camp set up in the heart of the Sahara — a magnificent opportunity to photograph the sunset and sunrise. Walk to the highest dunes to admire the sunset: it will be a magical night, with clear skies and twinkling stars. Special dinner around the campfire, overnight stay in a traditional nomadic Berber tent.

Day 5: Merzouga - Alnif - Zagora — 305 km:
Early wake-up to admire sunrise over the Merzouga dunes, return to camp for breakfast and drive to Zagora, passing through Alnif and Tazarine, crossing the Sarhro mountains. Lunch at your own expense at a local restaurant and continue to Zagora. Arrival, check-in at the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 6: Zagora - Ouarzazate — 165 km:
Breakfast at the hotel, visit to Zagora and the Tamegroute library, followed by the drive to Ouarzazate along the Draa valley and Agdz. Lunch at your own expense at a local restaurant in Ouarzazate and visit to the Taourirt and Tifoultoute kasbahs. Check-in at the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 7: Ouarzazate - Marrakech — 205 km:
Breakfast at the hotel and drive to Marrakech, with lunch at your own expense at a local restaurant on arrival. Free afternoon for personal exploration. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 8: Marrakech / Departure:
Breakfast at the hotel and transfer to Marrakech Menara Airport. Assistance and end of services.

NOTE :
the entire itinerary is on a half-board basis; dinner at a typical restaurant is therefore optional, at an additional cost. If the client chooses this service, it may be substituted for lunch instead of dinner at the hotel.

THE PEARL OF THE NORTH
07 days / 06 nights

Day 1: Casablanca - Tangier — 340 km:
Arrival at Mohammed V Airport in Casablanca and transfer to the centre of Casablanca, with a review of the trip itinerary along the way and the start of the visit to the country's economic capital: the Central Market, the Habous district, the Royal Palace (outside visit), Mohammed V square, the Anfa residential district, the Ain Diab Corniche and the famous Hassan II Mosque (outside visit). Lunch at your own expense at a local restaurant and departure for Tangier. Arrival late in the evening at the hotel, check-in, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 2: Tangier - Chaouen — 115 km:
Breakfast at the hotel and start of the Tangier city tour: Pasteur Avenue, Place de France and the diplomatic quarters. Next, visit Cape Spartel, with spectacular views over the Strait of Gibraltar, where you can visit the Caves of Hercules and their famous 'Africa's Gate', formed by sea erosion. Lunch at your own expense at a typical restaurant. In the afternoon, continue on to Chefchaouen, the Blue City, one of the most beautiful towns in the Rif mountains, famous for its shaded medina, whitewashed houses and blue doors and roofs. Check-in at the hotel, free time for personal exploration, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 3: Chaouen - Fez — 296 km:
Breakfast at the hotel, visit to Chefchaouen, a town that has preserved Andalusian art. The Main Square is the heart of Chefchaouen, with the kasbah built in the 18th century, the central mosque and authentic cafés. Lunch at your own expense at a typical restaurant in the medina and drive to Fez, the country's spiritual city. Arrival, check-in at the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 4: Fez:
Breakfast at the hotel. A full day dedicated to visiting Morocco's spiritual capital: Fez. Visit the medieval medina and its madrasas: Bouanania, the Karaouiyine Mosque and the Nejjarine Fountain. Lunch at your own expense at a restaurant in the medina. In the afternoon, continue through the souks and the new town. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 5: Fez - Meknes - Rabat — 206 km:
Breakfast at the hotel and drive to Meknes, the famous Ismaili capital, known for its long 40-kilometre walls — visit Bab Mansour, the royal stables and the medina. Lunch at your own expense at a typical restaurant. After lunch, drive to Rabat, arriving in the late afternoon, check-in at the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 6: Rabat - Casablanca — 100 km:
Breakfast at the hotel, visit to Rabat, the kingdom's political and administrative capital. City tour including the Royal Palace (Mechouar), Chellah (13th-century Merinid necropolis), the Oudaya kasbah, the Mausoleum of Mohammed V (white marble pavilion topped with green tiles) and the Hassan Tower (12th century). Lunch at your own expense at a local restaurant and drive to Casablanca, check-in at the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 7: Casablanca - Departure:
Breakfast at the hotel, transfer to Casablanca airport. Assistance and end of services.

NOTA
depending on the arrival time, the Casablanca visit may be carried out in the afternoon of day 6 instead of day 1.

SOUTH AND NORTH
10 days / 09 nights

Day 1: Casablanca Airport:
Arrival at Mohammed V Airport in Casablanca and transfer to the centre of Casablanca, with a review of the trip itinerary along the way. Arrival at the hotel, check-in, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 2: Casablanca - Marrakech — 205 km:
Breakfast at the hotel, visit to the country's economic capital: the Central Market, the Habous district, the Royal Palace (outside visit), Mohammed V square, the Anfa residential district, the Ain Diab Corniche and the famous Hassan II Mosque (outside visit). Lunch at your own expense at a local restaurant and departure for the country's Red City, 'Marrakech'. Arrival, check-in at the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 3: Marrakech - Ait Benhaddou - Ouarzazate — 205 km:
Breakfast at the hotel, visit to the second-oldest imperial city after Fez. Known as the Pearl of the South, founded by the Almoravids at the end of the 11th century. The historical visit includes the Koutoubia Mosque, the Menara Gardens, the Saadian Tombs and the Bahia Palace. Lunch at a typical restaurant. After lunch, departure for Ouarzazate, crossing the High Atlas mountains and the Tizi-n-Tichka pass (2,260 m). Photo stops are planned at scenic viewpoints. Further on, a stop to visit the Telouet Kasbah, once a noble residence and seat of the powerful Glaoui tribe. A secondary road, through the Ounila valley, leads to the Ait Ben Haddou Kasbah. Late afternoon arrival in Ouarzazate, check-in at the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 4: Ouarzazate - Todgha Gorge - Merzouga — 370 km:
After breakfast, a brief city tour of Ouarzazate, visit to the Taourirt Kasbah and departure for the Dades and Todra gorges, passing through the Skoura oasis, where numerous ancient kasbahs, some unfortunately in ruins, rise among the palm trees. From here continue to Kelaa M'gouna, the Valley of Roses, where you will stop to discover cosmetic products made locally with the valley's abundant roses. Continue along the Road of a Thousand Kasbahs to the Dades gorge. Lunch at your own expense along the way and continue to the Merzouga dunes, through the Ziz valley and the Tafilalet oasis. Switch to 4x4 vehicles and climb the Erg Chebbi dunes to watch the sunset from above (250 m). Dinner and overnight stay in Berber tents in the heart of the magical Merzouga dunes.

Day 5: Merzouga - Midelt - Ifrane - Fez — 465 km:
Early wake-up, dromedaries available to accompany the sunrise over the dunes, return to camp for breakfast and drive to Erfoud, where the 4x4 vehicles are left behind, then on towards Fez. Halfway, stop for lunch at your own expense in the town of Midelt, famous for its fossils and rocks. Continue to the cedar forest of Azrou, in the Middle Atlas mountains, where you can see monkeys in their natural habitat, with a stop in Ifrane, a Berber village known as 'the Switzerland of Morocco' for the style of its buildings. Continue to Fez, arrival and check-in at the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 6: Fez - Meknes - Volubilis - Fez — 98 km:
Breakfast at the hotel, visit to the country's spiritual city: Fez. Visit the medieval medina and its madrasas: Bouanania, the Karaouiyine Mosque and the Nejjarine Fountain. Lunch at your own expense at a typical restaurant in the medina. In the afternoon, continue on to Meknes, the famous Ismaili capital, known for its long 40-kilometre walls — visit Bab Mansour, the royal stables and the medina — and, afterwards, visit the sacred town of Moulay Idriss and the Roman ruins of Volubilis. Late afternoon, return to Fez, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 7: Fez - Chaouen - Tetouan - Tangier — 326 km:
Breakfast at the hotel, departure for Chefchaouen, a town that has preserved Andalusian art. The Main Square is the heart of Chefchaouen, with the kasbah built in the 18th century, the central mosque and authentic cafés. Lunch at your own expense at a typical restaurant in the medina and drive to Tangier, passing through Tetouan, a Hispano-Moorish town, a mix of cultures, whose medina is a UNESCO World Heritage Site — an authentic and pleasant place, with street markets. Arrival in Tangier, dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 8: Tangier - Asilah - Rabat — 256 km:
Breakfast at the hotel and start of the Tangier city tour, including Pasteur Avenue, Place de France and the diplomatic quarters. Next, visit Cape Spartel, with spectacular views over the Strait of Gibraltar, where you can visit the Caves of Hercules and their famous 'Africa's Gate', formed by sea erosion. Departure for Asilah: just 45 km south of Tangier, the white town of Asilah is surrounded by magnificent coastline and has been Roman, Spanish and Portuguese — with bastions, towers and walls. Lunch at your own expense at a local restaurant famous for its delicious fish dishes. Continue to Rabat. Arrival, check-in at the hotel, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 9: Rabat - Casablanca — 100 km:
Breakfast at the hotel, visit to Rabat, the kingdom's political and administrative capital. City tour including the Royal Palace (Mechouar), Chellah (13th-century Merinid necropolis), the Oudaya kasbah, the Mausoleum of Mohammed V (white marble pavilion topped with green tiles) and the Hassan Tower (12th century). Lunch at your own expense at a local restaurant and continue to Casablanca, dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 10: Casablanca - Departure:
Breakfast at the hotel, transfer to Casablanca airport. Assistance and end of services.

AUTHENTIC ESCAPE IN MOROCCO

Arrival in Casablanca / Departure from Marrakech
10 nights / 11 days

Embark on an unforgettable 11-day journey across Morocco, where tradition, culture and natural beauty meet in perfect harmony. This itinerary, carefully crafted down to the smallest detail, invites you to discover the country's authentic soul. Whether exploring lively medinas or relaxing beneath the starry desert skies, this journey combines cultural discovery with moments of tranquillity: a true Moroccan escape for the soul.

Day 1: Casablanca:
Arrival at CMN airport, our driver will be waiting for you. You will then be transferred to your hotel, where you will spend your first night in Morocco, to relax and recover from the flight and prepare for the following day.

Day 2: Casablanca / Rabat — 81.1 km:
After breakfast and check-out, you will meet your guide and begin the visit to the kingdom's economic capital: you will visit the Central Market, the Habous district, the Royal Palace (outside visit), Mohammed V square, the Anfa residential district, the Ain Diab Corniche and the outside visit of the Hassan II Mosque. Lunch at your own expense and continue to Rabat, beginning the city tour of the ancient Chellah necropolis. Visit the picturesque, maze-like Oudaya Kasbah and the beautiful gardens outside the Kasbah. Conclude the visit at the majestic Hassan Tower and the Mausoleum of Mohammed V. Check-in and overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 3: Rabat / Meknes / Fez — 203.8 km:
After breakfast and check-out, you will continue towards Fez and, along the way, pass through Meknes, the imperial city. Discover the city's most iconic sites and the ancient Roman city of Volubilis. At the end of the day, arrival in Fez, where you will spend the night.

Day 4: Fez:
You will begin your journey in the incredible city of Fez with your professional guide. The largest medieval medina still living, the cultural heart of Morocco, with over 80,000 dwellings (workshops). The Medina of Fez is one of the most imposing historic medinas in North Africa. You will be able to visit the city's fascinating cultural and historical sites. In the afternoon, you will take part in a Zellige tile workshop, discovering the history of ceramics in Morocco and the local techniques that distinguish Fez ceramics. Overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 5: Fez / Ifrane / Azrou — 82.3 km:
On the fourth day you will take an excursion to Ifrane. Ifrane is one of the country's most touristic towns. The 'Switzerland of Morocco' stands out for its milder temperatures, distinctive architecture, varied landscapes, lakes and streams, and numerous outdoor activities. There you can enjoy the Spa at the Michlifen resort, an exceptional mountain spa dedicated to your wellbeing and relaxation. The Spa skilfully weaves together contemporary style, Berber architecture and Hispano-Moorish art, with finely carved wood. You will then be transferred to the beautiful town of Azrou, where you will spend the night.

Day 6: Azrou / Merzouga — 388.0 km:
On the 6th day of your journey, you will discover the impressive and magical absolute silence of the desert. In Merzouga, you will be enchanted by the splendid dunes and discover breathtaking, surprising landscapes, where nothing can be heard but silence and the muffled sound of camels' footsteps on the sand, while you enjoy the camel ride. Afterwards, dinner at the camp and overnight stay in a tent, for a truly immersive experience.

Day 7: Merzouga / Kalaat M'Gouna / Ouarzazate — 365.1 km:
Next stop: the Valley of Roses, carved by the Assif M'Goun river on its way to the town of Kalaat M'Gouna. The valley owes its name and its livelihood to the cultivation of the Damascus rose, which blooms abundantly every April and May. During this period, local women gather the fragrant petals, which are then transformed into a wide variety of products, from shampoos to hand creams and natural remedies. This region is not only famous for its roses, but also for its vibrant network of cooperatives, many of which are run by women. These cooperatives produce high-quality natural products and play a fundamental role in the empowerment of rural communities. During the visit, you will have the opportunity to discover a variety of traditional beauty and wellness products, including the region's famous argan oil, valued for its nourishing and healing properties. We then continue towards Ouarzazate, along the mountain roads of the High Atlas, where you can take photographs while enjoying the pure air and tranquillity of the Atlas. Check-in and overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 8: Ouarzazate / Marrakech — 192.5 km:
After breakfast and check-out, begin exploring Ouarzazate, often called the 'Gateway to the Desert' for its strategic position between the majestic Atlas mountains and the vast Sahara. Discover the famous film studios where numerous iconic films were shot, including the legendary Lawrence of Arabia. This immersive experience offers a fascinating glimpse into the world of cinema. After the visit, continue the journey to the vibrant city of Marrakech, world-renowned as a cultural and historical gem. Check-in and overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 9: Marrakech:
After breakfast at the hotel, you will meet your guide to begin the visit to the Red City, the second-oldest imperial city after Fez. Known as the Pearl of the South, founded by the Almoravids at the end of the 11th century. The historical visit includes the Koutoubia Mosque, the Menara Gardens, the Saadian Tombs and the Bahia Palace. Visit the craftsmen's quarters, discovering various trades. End of the tour with a stop at the famous Jemaa el-Fna square. Overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 10: Marrakech / Ourika / Marrakech — 36.3 km one way:
On this day, you can enjoy a visit to one of the most renowned gardens in Ourika. Born at the foot of the Moroccan Atlas, Nectarome is built around an organic aromatic garden (Le Jardin Bio-aromatique de l'Ourika), in a valley near Marrakech. The company was founded by a team made up of a doctor specialising in the study of essential oils, a pharmacist and a cosmetics formulator. The team, trained in aromatherapy, is dedicated to developing natural, healthy wellness products typical of Morocco, with respect for the environment. Nectarome combines the wisdom of ancestral Moroccan traditions with modern knowledge of aromatherapy and phytotherapy. You will take part in a local Berber gastronomy workshop, designed for all cooking enthusiasts, an excellent opportunity to discover and delve into Moroccan gastronomy, with the chance to learn how to prepare a traditional Moroccan and Berber recipe. After lunch, you will visit the souk or market of Marrakech for some last-minute shopping. Overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 11: Marrakech (Departure):
Departure from Marrakech airport, according to your flight schedule.

AGAFAY — DESERT
Discovery and Activities Package

Agafay… A place waiting to be discovered!

The famous Agafay desert lies thirty kilometres south of Marrakech. The ancients called it the 'Marrakchi Desert': this rocky desert can be compared to a sand desert. Its white dunes and landscape are indeed reminiscent of the dunes of the Sahara. In the middle of the desert lies a surprising oasis, a haven of peace and tranquillity, nestled in the arid lands of the Agafay mountains.
Arriving in the middle of nowhere, the small oasis welcomes you and makes you forget the intense atmosphere of downtown Marrakech.
No one can experience the magical Agafay Desert without taking part in a few activities that will remain etched in their memory forever. All these activities (camel or horse rides, quad or buggy excursions, 4x4 safaris etc.) are organised in partnership with local companies that adhere to a strict code of ethics to guarantee your enjoyment, your safety and respect for the environment and people: compliance with labour legislation and regulations, insurance, refusal to employ minors, human development and equality between women and men. The animals are looked after by veterinarians (vaccinations, care, insurance) and are perfectly well fed.

Le Bedouin

Experience a luxury desert experience near Marrakech like never before! Just thirty minutes from the bustling city, Le Bedouin Agafay welcomes you to a breathtaking retreat in the heart of the Agafay Desert. Surrounded by majestic mountains and enriched by authentic Moroccan hospitality, our desert camp offers a perfect escape from everyday stress. Whether you're looking to relax, seek adventure or find inspiration, immerse yourself in an oasis of peace, where you can enjoy quad excursions, meditation and moments of tranquillity beneath the desert sky. For those seeking the ultimate luxury desert experience near Marrakech, Le Bedouin Agafay offers an unforgettable escape, with luxury tents and unique activities, tailored to your needs.

Inara Camp

It is in the magical setting of the Agafay desert that we have set up our Inara Camp (formerly known as Agafay Camp). Set on a 21-hectare plot, Inara Camp welcomes guests who wish to experience a night in the desert.

Made up of 19 tents and suites, each with a king-size bed, living area and private bathroom with hot shower and toilet, the camp offers a luxurious and intimate camping experience. Inara Camp also has 2 swimming pools where guests can cool off, and a restaurant serving delicious breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Inara Camp is proud to offer a unique experience to its guests, preserving everyone's tranquillity and privacy, to make the dream of a night in the desert come true.
