ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE IN MARRAKECH – 8 DAYS / 7 NIGHTS

THE EXPERIENCE:

A journey through the cities that shaped the kingdom's history. Between medinas, palaces, mosques, gardens and squares, this itinerary brings the traveller closer to the different cultural expressions of Casablanca, Rabat, Fez and Marrakech, while the stops along the way deepen understanding of Morocco's landscape and heritage.

Day 1 — Marrakech Airport

Arrival at Marrakech-Menara Airport, welcome and transfer to the hotel. Check-in, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 2 — Marrakech

After breakfast, Marrakech reveals the different layers of its history over a full day of visits. The Koutoubia Mosque, the Menara Gardens, the Saadian Tombs and the Bahia Palace introduce travellers to the legacy of the "Red City", founded by the Almoravids at the end of the 11th century and considered the second-oldest imperial city after Fez. Lunch will be free. In the afternoon, the souks and craftsmen's quarters show the vitality of local trades, before ending at the famous Jemaa el-Fna square. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel. Optional: typical dinner with folklore, dance and fantasia.

Day 3 — Marrakech / Essaouira / Casablanca — 565 km

Departure at 8:00am for Essaouira, the former Mogador, on the Atlantic coast. Visit the ochre ramparts, Moulay-el-Hassan Square, the souks and the alleys of the medina. Free lunch at a fish restaurant. Continue along the coastal road, with photo stops in El Jadida. Arrival in Casablanca in the late afternoon. Dinner and overnight stay.

Day 4 — Casablanca / Rabat — 100 km

At 9:30am, meet the guide and visit Casablanca: Central Market, Habous, outside view of the Royal Palace, Mohammed V Square, Anfa, Ain Diab corniche and outside view of the Hassan II Mosque. Free lunch. In Rabat: Royal Palace, Mausoleum of Mohammed V, Hassan II, Kasbah of the Oudayas and Hassan Tower. Dinner and overnight stay.

Day 5 — Rabat / Meknes / Volubilis / Fez — 200 km

Drive to Fez via Meknes, the Ismaili capital surrounded by about 40 km of ramparts: Bab Mansour and the medina. Free lunch. Photo stop at Moulay Idriss and visit to the Roman ruins of Volubilis. Dinner and overnight stay in Fez.

Day 6 — Fez

After breakfast, the day will be entirely devoted to Fez, Morocco's spiritual capital. The route through the medieval medina brings travellers closer to centuries of knowledge, faith and craftsmanship, visiting the Bou Inania and Attarine madrasas, the Nejjarine fountain and the Karaouiyine Mosque. Imperial Cities, Tangier and Chefchaouen

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE IN CASABLANCA – 8 DAYS / 7 NIGHTS

THE EXPERIENCE:

From the imperial capitals to the Mediterranean north, this journey combines the historical heritage of Casablanca, Rabat, Meknes and Fez with the cosmopolitan atmosphere of Tangier and the blue hues of Chefchaouen. Each stage adds a new perspective on Morocco's cultural and geographic diversity.

Day 1 — Arrival in Casablanca

Arrival at Mohammed V Airport, welcome and transfer to the city centre. Presentation of the itinerary during the journey. Check-in, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 2 — Casablanca / Rabat / Tangier — long day

Departure at 8:30am. Visit Casablanca: Central Market, Habous district, outside view of the Royal Palace, Mohammed V Square, the Anfa residential district, Ain Diab corniche and outside view of the Hassan II Mosque. Continue to Rabat, with free lunch at a local restaurant and visits to the Royal Palace (Mechouar), the Mausoleum of Mohammed V, Hassan II, the Kasbah of the Oudayas and the Hassan Tower. In the afternoon, drive to Tangier, an ancient city shaped by many different peoples throughout its history and declared an international city for much of the first half of the 20th century. Today, it stands out as a cosmopolitan economic hub. Check-in, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 3 — Tangier / Tetouan / Chefchaouen

After breakfast, visit Tangier: Boulevard Pasteur, Place de France and the diplomatic quarters. Then, Cape Spartel, with views over the Strait of Gibraltar, and the Caves of Hercules, known for their opening called the “Gateway to Africa”, shaped by sea erosion. Departure for Chefchaouen via Tetouan, a city of Hispanic and Moorish influences, whose medina is listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Free lunch. In the afternoon, continue to the “Blue City”, one of the most beautiful towns in the Rif mountains, known for its medina of shaded alleys, whitewashed houses, blue doors and tilework. Check-in, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 4 — Chefchaouen / Meknes / Volubilis / Fez

After breakfast, head south, stopping at Moulay Idriss before arriving in Meknes, the smallest of the imperial cities, surrounded by about 40 km of ramparts and known as the “Versailles of Morocco” or the “city of a hundred minarets”. Visit Bab Mansour, the former royal stables and the medina. Free lunch at a local restaurant. Then, visit the archaeological site of Volubilis, with its Roman ruins preserved amid the landscape. Continue to Fez, the imperial capital of spirituality. Dinner and overnight stay.

Imperial Cities, Tangier and Chefchaouen

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE IN CASABLANCA – 8 DAYS / 7 NIGHTS

Day 5 — Fez

After breakfast, the day will be entirely devoted to Fez, Morocco's spiritual capital. The route through the medieval medina brings travellers closer to centuries of knowledge, faith and craftsmanship, visiting the Bou Inania and Attarine madrasas, the Nejjarine Museum and the Karaouiyine Mosque. Lunch will be free in Fez El Bali. In the afternoon, the experience continues through the souks and Fez Jdid, founded by the Merinids in 1276, revealing the dialogue between historic Fez and contemporary life. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 6 — Fez / Beni Mellal / Marrakech

Crossing of the Middle Atlas via Imouzzer du Kandar, Azrou and Ifrane, a charming ski resort at the heart of a magnificent cedar forest. Stop in Beni Mellal for a moment of rest. Free lunch at a local restaurant and continuation to Marrakech, as the red earth contrasts with the blue sky and the ever-present green of the palm groves. Dinner and overnight stay.

Day 7 — Marrakech

After breakfast, Marrakech reveals the different layers of its history over a full day of visits. The Koutoubia Mosque, the Menara Gardens, the Saadian Tombs and the Bahia Palace introduce travellers to the legacy of the "Red City", founded by the Almoravids at the end of the 11th century and considered the second-oldest imperial city after Fez. Grand Tour of Morocco

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE IN CASABLANCA – 11 DAYS / 10 NIGHTS

THE EXPERIENCE:

A wide-ranging panorama of the country, from the imperial cities to the desert and the Atlantic coast. Over eleven days, this journey brings together historic medinas, valleys, kasbahs, dunes and former Portuguese towns, in a continuous exploration of Morocco's diversity.

Day 1 — Casablanca — 35 km

Arrival at Mohammed V Airport, welcome, assistance and transfer to the hotel. Check-in, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 2 — Casablanca / Rabat — 100 km

After breakfast, meet the guide at 9:30am and visit the economic capital: Central Market, Habous district, outside view of the Royal Palace, Mohammed V Square, the Anfa residential district, Ain Diab corniche and outside view of the Hassan II Mosque. Free lunch and continue to Rabat: Royal Palace (Mechouar), Mausoleum of Mohammed V, Hassan II, Kasbah of the Oudayas and Hassan Tower. Check-in, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 3 — Rabat / Meknes / Fez — 200 km

Breakfast and departure for Fez via Meknes, the Ismaili capital known for its 40 km of ramparts. Visit Bab Mansour and the medina. Free lunch, photo stop at Moulay Idriss and visit to the Roman ruins of Volubilis. Continue to Fez. Check-in, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 4 — Fez

After breakfast, the day will be entirely devoted to Fez, Morocco's spiritual capital. The route through the medieval medina brings travellers closer to centuries of knowledge, faith and craftsmanship, visiting the Bou Inania and Attarine madrasas, the Nejjarine fountain and the Karaouiyine Mosque. Lunch will be free in Fez El Bali. In the afternoon, the experience continues through the souks and Fez Jdid, founded by the Merinids in 1276, revealing the dialogue between historic Fez and contemporary life. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel.

Day 5 — Fez / Midelt / Erfoud — 400 km

Drive via Ifrane, a ski resort known as the “Moroccan Switzerland”, with a stop in Midelt for a free lunch. Continue via Errachidia to the palm-lined Ziz Valley. Arrival in Erfoud in the late afternoon, check-in, dinner and overnight stay. Optional: short 4x4 excursion to Merzouga, the pearl of the Moroccan desert, known for its orange sand dunes, to watch the sunrise or sunset, with return to the hotel.

Day 6 — Erfoud / Tinghir / Ouarzazate — 310 km

The excursion to the Merzouga dunes may be done early in the morning, returning to the hotel for breakfast. Then, drive to the holy town of Rissani, burial place of Moulay Ali Cherif of the Alaouite dynasty, with a photo stop. Continue via Tinjdad, with a photo stop in the Todgha Valley, whose walls reach 250 m in height. Free lunch and drive along the Route of a Thousand Kasbahs, along the Dades Valley, to Ouarzazate. Check-in, dinner and overnight stay.

Grand Tour of Morocco

Day 7 — Ouarzazate / Marrakech — 205 km

After breakfast, visit the kasbahs of Taourirt and Tifoultoute and continue to the famous Kasbah of Ait Ben Haddou. A UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1987, the site has served as the setting for productions such as “Sodom and Gomorrah” (1963), “The Man Who Would Be King” (1975), “The Mummy” (1999), “Gladiator” (2000), “Alexander” (2004) and “Kingdom of Heaven” (2005). Visit and free lunch. Then, cross the Tizi n'Tichka pass, amid the Atlas landscapes, to Marrakech. Arrival in the late afternoon, check-in, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 8 — Marrakech

After breakfast, Marrakech reveals the different layers of its history over a full day of visits. The Koutoubia Mosque, the Menara Gardens, the Saadian Tombs and the Bahia Palace introduce travellers to the legacy of the “Red City”, founded by the Almoravids at the end of the 11th century and considered the second-oldest imperial city after Fez. Lunch will be free. In the afternoon, the souks and craftsmen's quarters show the vitality of local trades, before ending at the famous Jemaa el-Fna square. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel. Optional: typical dinner with folklore, dance and fantasia.

Day 9 — Marrakech / Essaouira — 175 km

Departure around 10:30am. Arrival in Essaouira and free lunch. Time to visit the former Mogador, renowned for its woodwork craftsmanship. Dinner and overnight stay.

Day 10 — Essaouira / Safi / El Jadida / Casablanca — 406 km

Drive to Safi, a former Portuguese town renowned for its pottery, with a photo stop. Continue along the picturesque coastal road to Oualidia and El Jadida. Free time for lunch and visit to the famous citadel, a witness to the Portuguese occupation in the 16th century. Continue to Casablanca, check-in, dinner and overnight stay.

Day 11 — Casablanca / Departure

Breakfast, transfer to Mohammed V Airport and assistance with boarding formalities.

NOTE The whole tour is run on a half-board basis. Dinner at a typical restaurant is optional and subject to a supplement. If the client books this service, they may receive lunch instead of the dinner planned at the hotel.
